SEND TWO PIANISTS

Match Skill With Musicians of Three States; Also in Quartet Meet.

A chorus of 14 boys from the "High School" club will represent the Tulsa high school in the chorus portion of the state contest at Norman, Thursday, April 29. They will be accompanied by their director, Walter Schlegel, who has for six years taken choruses in the state contest from different schools in Oklahoma. Chorus members will be Karl Dierby, Charles Adams, Ed. Wood, and Steve Harvey, Stone, R. W. Brown, Clyde Good, Chris Wise, Edward West, Raymond Gunn, Vaghen, Hueton, Wilbur Griffin, Edward Monahan, Neal Gump, Nelson McCleary, Paul Grounch, Milton Blumensfeld, Robert Dixon, and Herbert Schaffner.

Members of the chorus who have been selected to participate in the contest are Karl Dierby, Edward West, Vaughn Herbold, and Robert Dixon. This is the first year that a quartet will represent Tulsa high. "I believe that this chorus has more real talent than any high school glee club that I was ever associated with," Mr. Schlegel said.

Miss Janella Jones and Kenneth Owen, winners in the preliminary piano contest in the high school, will take part in the state and tri-state piano contest. Miss Jones will go to the tri-state contest at Pittsburg, Kansas, on April 29, and Kenneth Owen will go to Norman on the same date.

An opera, "The Chimes of Normandy," will be given by the combined boys and girls choruses of the high school on May 1. The proceeds from this opera will be used to help send music representatives to the tri-state contest between Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma in Pittsburg, Kansas, on April 29. Miss Lila Wade, Hurrell head of the music department of the high school, will have charge of the opera.

MYSTERY MISSING FORTUNE BAFFLING

The Choctaw tribe which formerly occupied tribal lands in Mississippi, Mrs. Diehl shows about one-fourth Indian blood.

"Don't find out that I am a Choctaw," Mrs. Diehl told Mr. Lewis in leaving his office. "I would rather lose my inheritance than for I want to be a Cherokee."

Another curious angle to the affair is a story told by Mrs. Diehl to the effect that while in Memphis she met a man who gave her the name as E. G. Boyd and said that he was an attorney from Tulsa. He associated her, she says, in making a deposit of money and diamonds in a Memphis bank and she later found that she could not withdraw them on account of it being a joint account. Boyd, according to her story, returned to Tulsa and after corresponding with her for some time disappeared. He could not be located here yesterday.

ILLINOIS MIDGET IS DEAD

Used Stepladder When Harnessing His Horses.

MACOMB, Ill., April 24.—Illinois smallest man is dead here. He is John Kelley, 50, 44 inches in height, weighing 155 pounds. Kelley died of apoplexy a few days ago. Years ago circuses were bidding for his services. He spurned all because of self-consciousness of his diminutive size. In Kelley's younger days his legs were double-jointed, permitting him to move as rapidly backward as forward. He was normal from the waist up, his only deformity being in his limbs. All his life he worked on a farm here, using a step-ladder when harnessing his team.

Gould Divorce Case Re-Opened

Mrs. Frank J. Gould.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The battle ground for the marital wrangles of Frank J. Gould, multimillionaire member of the noted Gould family, was shifted from Paris to New York today. Mrs. Edith Kelly Gould, the actress-second wife, from whom Gould was granted a divorce in French courts last spring, has filed a counter action for divorce here claiming that the French courts had no jurisdiction.

Startling charges of Gould's intemperance and wild mode of living are contained in the complaint filed in New York. Mrs. Gould charged it was her husband's custom to drink a quart of whisky daily before 8 o'clock in the morning, after which he would sleep until noon and then resume drinking. From 1911 to 1918, she charged, Gould was a habitual state of intoxication.

During these protracted drinking periods, Mrs. Gould charged, it was practically impossible to get her husband to bathe often than once a month. She also charged French women in Paris during the period of their marriage—from 1911 to 1918. They were married in 1910 in Scotland and separated in 1918 in Paris.

spracy to violate the Lever act, today were continued until May 2. Among those arraigned today before United States Commissioner Mason were John Grinnau, president of the outlaw Chicago Yardmen's association, and Harold Reading, head of the United Enginemen's association. "The government has not arrested you men to force you to go back to work," Commissioner Mason said to the defendants, "but because you are charged with breaking a law. A man has a right to quit his work any time he feels like it. That's his constitutional right and it is not the intention of the government to compel you to return to duty."

District Attorney Clegg warned the strike leaders that if they persisted in strike agitation the government would use more drastic measures in dealing with them.

NEW YORK, April 24.—In announcing today that engineers of the Lackawanna railroad would go on strike Monday, Edward L. McHugh, chairman of the executive committee of the striking railroad employees of the New York district, said the walkout would be in sympathy with strikers to whom the railroads have issued an ultimatum that they cannot return to work except as new men, forfeiting seniority rights.

Engineers on some of the other roads are hallooing on strike in sympathy with the Lackawanna men, McHugh announced.

He also declared it probable that shophan on the Erie railroad would favor a sympathetic strike.

Declaring that the strikers' committee of 100 had been "double crossed" by the brotherhood chiefs in order to get them out of Washington, McHugh declared in a statement tonight that the men had withdrawn their offer to return to work if protected in their seniority and would settle the strike only on terms satisfactory to the men.

Two hundred of the striking employees of the Hudson tubes went this afternoon to return in their jobs, but when they found that Irving G. Hunt, president of the Trainmen's union, and two other strike leaders were not to be taken back, all refused to go to work and returned to the headquarters of the strikers.
